Ephesians 2:16-18 The Message

Christ brought us together through his death on the cross. The Cross got us to embrace, and that was the end of the hostility. Christ came and preached peace to you outsiders and peace to us insiders. He treated us as equals, and so made us equals. Through him we both share the same Spirit and have equal access to the Father.

“Bottom Dwellers Or Outcast”

To many of us, Christians or not tend to view those on the margins of society exactly in these terms.

John 8:2 At dawn he appeared again in the temple courts, where all the people gathered around him, and he sat down to teach them. ³ The teachers of the law and the Pharisees brought in a woman caught in adultery. They made her stand before the group ⁴ and said to Jesus, “Teacher, this woman was caught in the act of adultery.

⁹ At this, those who heard began to go away one at a time, the older ones first, until only Jesus was left, with the woman still standing there. ¹⁰ Jesus straightened up and asked her, “Woman, where are they? Has no one condemned you?”

¹¹ “No one, sir,” she said.

“Then neither do I condemn you,” Jesus declared. “Go now and leave your life of sin.”

Jesus did not operate within the parameters dictated by his culture. He sought the crippled and disease-ridden, and any whom society had deemed unworthy, disreputable, and morally wrong in their lifestyle choices.

They were the ones who were lost, lonely, and in pain, and willing to admit it. He even surrounded himself with a ragtag group of sinners to be in his inner circle.
